Big Creek Watershed Plan Steering Committee

The Town of Amherstburg, Essex Region Conservation Authority, and its partners are initiating a watershed planning process for the Big Creek watershed. The Watershed Plan will be supported by several technical studies and will be subject to a broad public consultation process. It will be used to inform and influence decisions and policies relating to land and water stewardship throughout the watershed once it is completed.

The project partners are presently seeking four volunteer Steering Committee members from the community to help guide the planning process.

A full Big Creek Watershed Plan Terms of Reference Discussion Document has been developed and is available at www.erca.org or it can be obtained by contacting the individuals listed below.

Member Obligations: Completion of the Big Creek Watershed Plan is expected to take approximately three years. Members must be available to meet monthly outside of normal business hours during the initial stages of the process and during project milestones, with less frequent meetings in between. Representatives must reside or own property in the Big Creek watershed.

How to Apply: Candidates must submit an Expression of Interest Form and a current resume by 4:00 pm on Friday, April 25, 2008. Expression of Interest forms can be obtained at www.erca.org or by contacting the individuals listed below.

Members will be selected following an interview process that ensures the full diversity of the watershed is represented by the community positions.
